Inspired by the popular Shakespeare play, A Midsummer Night's Dream is an installation by Slobodan Trajkovic. The work examines the balance between order and chaos while creating a playground of sculptural shapes completely drawn from his subconscious, creating a dream that remains to be interpreted by the viewer.

A Serbian born artist, Trajkovic who lives and works in the UK, is a multi-disciplinary artist dealing with painting, sculpture and multimedia. Trajkovic's works are widely exhibited in museums and galleries abroad, including the United States of America and Europe.
